

The Danish Data Ethics Council

Johan Busse

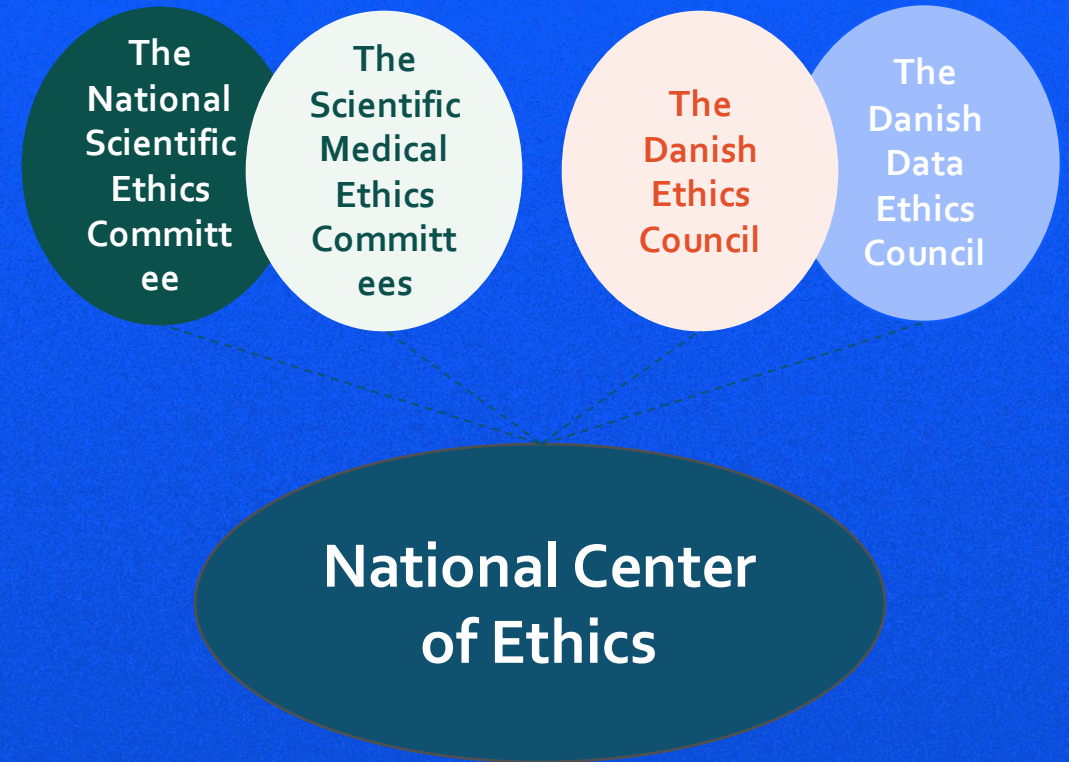

Chairman of the council

The background and organisation

- Rapid digitalisation of the Danish public sector in the 2010's
- Government Expert Group on Dataethics (2018)
- Danish Data Ethics Council (2019)
- DDEC joins National Centre for Ethics (2022)

The role of the Danish Data Ethics Council

Initiate and nurture broad public debate

Individual sparring with relevant actors

Publish analyses and recommendations

Ensure an international outlook

Completed and ongoing activities

- Sparring and recommendations on Covid contact-tracing apps
- Policy lab, "Techsplainer", and recommendations on facial recognition
- Guidelines: 'Dataethics – A How To'
- Educational material for primary schools
- National survey and case studies on personal data sharing
- Hosting first European data ethics councils' summit
- Analysis of employee monitoring and ADM in the workplace
- Recommendations on the use of generative AI for ADM by public authorities
- Recommendations on increased digitalisation of public health care sector
- Young citizens' panel on challenges and potential of generative AI
- Sparring with public authorities, business, public service media, NGOs